PROFILE

An inquisitive and creative web developer, I love to solve a puzzle or challenge. Tenacious, I refuse to give up until a problem is solved. My tenacity and curiosity has led me to become a resourceful and dedicated web developer adept in full stack development.

With a strong and diverse creative background, I am drawn to front-end development. Proficient in an array of technologies, I always push myself to learn new tech (Typescript and Next.js are next in line).

My empathetic nature and strong community values ensure I am a valuable team member with the ability to build a strong rapport with colleagues.

EDUCATION

Full Stack Web Development , Enspiral Dev Academy
